

Conduct and Dispute Resolution

Conduct and Dispute Resolution is a part of the RGKA rules, if not followed consequences may be inflicted as follows

1. Any unsportsmanlike conduct; i.e. swearing, arguing, or obscene gestures by a driver, crew member, or person representing a kart; will be penalized as follows:
 - a. If there is physical violence by any person at the track:
 - i. Immediate ejection from the race. Authorities will be called immediately.
 - ii. Lifetime ban of the offender.
 - b. Any acts of unsportsmanlike conduct by a driver or crew member:
 - i. First Offence:
 1. Immediate ejection from the race. If the person(s) refuse to leave after the first demand to leave, authorities will be called immediately.
 2. Two race day suspension. A race day is the calendar date on which one or more races are held.
 - ii. Second Offence:
 1. Suspension for the remainder of the season.
 - iii. Third Offence:
 1. Lifetime ban of the individual.
 - c. If the offense is caused by a board member all consequences above and removal from the board.
2. Dispute resolution of any race issue:
 - a. No flagman calls, finish positions, points position or any other race dispute will be allowed to be discussed the night of any race. All calls are final.
 - b. No discussion will be allowed with any individual board member at any time. Individual board members do not have the authority to make decisions for the association.
 - c. If someone decides an issue needs further discussion
 - i. The person with the issue must request an agenda item be added to the next board meeting in writing to the association president.
 - ii. All information and data related to the issue (video, explanations, etc.) will be communicated to the board members at least 1 week prior to the board meeting. Discussion by phone with individual board members is not allowed.
 - iii. The person with the issue will be allowed an uninterrupted 5 minutes to explain their issue at the board meeting.
 - iv. Board members may ask questions and request answers from the person after their 5 minutes.
 - v. The person with the issue will then not interrupt the board while they are discussing the issue.
 - vi. The board may then make an immediate decision, may choose to delay a decision, or take no action on the issue.
 - vii. The board's decisions are final.
3. The track board members reserve the right to ask anyone to leave, temporarily or permanently if the board believes that someone is not adhering to the rules of the track, the spirit of fair play, and dealing appropriately with an all volunteer organization. The board will not allow any person to ruin the spirit of fun and child development for the rest of the racers and their race group.
4. All decisions by the board and it's members at the track, or at a meeting are final and will not be discussed after the decisions are made.
